Terms & Conditions

- All admissions will be subject to final approval by the Admissions Committee. It is the prerogative of the college to refuse admission to a student
- The student will be required to pay administration fee of £250 (non-refundable) plus rest of full fee.
- Students must ensure they have sufficient funds to cover living expenses and should not rely on part time work
- Any default in full payment according to the agreed payment plan can render the admission liable to cancellation
- International students, having paid their fee (either in full or agreed instalments) shall be entitled to the refund of the paid amount in the event their Visa is refused by the Entry Clearance Officer. However a deduction of £250.00 will be made as administrative charges
- The college reserves the right to refuse student entry to an examination who fail to settle their fees
- All membership/registration fees of the Awarding Bodies, examination fees, late fees, re-sit fees, certificate replacement etc are not included in the course fee and students are liable for payment of all such expenses for their relevant course
- In the event of under-numbering of students for a particular course, the college reserves the right to cancel that course
- The UK Border Agency will be informed of student registration, attendance and progress. All students must observe the hours set out for their course. Any default from the required attendance levels will also be reported to the UK Border Agency
- In the event of absence due to sickness, the student shall be required to provide the college with a medical certificate from a General Practitioner or Hospital Doctor
- The college reserves the right to make changes to the structure and content of a course
- The college reserves the right to abandon a particular course. In all such cases the student will be transferred to an alternative course
- Students are required to strictly observe all college procedures and policies. Any violation of college policies or any immigration rule will render a student liable to dismissal. In such circumstances the student will not be entitled to a refund of fees and will be reported to the UK Border Agency.
